

Concord Chamber Orchestra

Jamin Hoffman, Music Director

Concord Chamber Orchestra was founded in 1975 to provide performances of classical music for the enjoyment of area audiences and to offer talented musicians performance opportunities. Through its annual concerto competition, Concord gives an outstanding young musician the opportunity to perform with an orchestra. Concord's musicians practice a wide variety of professions and come from all age groups. We share a deep love of music and the joy of performing it with like-minded people.

Funding for Concord is provided by a number of generous individual and corporate benefactors. We gratefully acknowledge the Greater Milwaukee Foundation, the Wisconsin Arts Board and the many other donors who make these concerts possible.

2009-10 CONCERT SEASON

North, South, East and West:

Music from all directions

As the Concord Chamber Orchestra embarks on our 34th season, we invite you to join us on a musical journey to the four corners of the earth, evoking images ranging from pristine fjords to steamy jungles, and desert sands to Europe's finest concert halls!

1 NORTH

Saturday, October 17, 2008 at 8:00 pm
 St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran Church,
 1615 Wauwatosa Avenue, Wauwatosa

Featuring piano soloist Ingrid Hanson-Popp

Music from the Nordic countries will bring to mind the glacial splendor of Scandinavia, but pianist Ingrid Hanson-Popp will warm your heart with the lush harmonies of Grieg's Piano Concerto! Anyone dressed in Nordic costume gets in free!

- Icelandic Dances, Op. 11*, by Jon Leifs (Iceland)
- Piano Concerto in A Minor, by Edvard Grieg (Norway)
- Overture to Estrella de Soria, by Franz Adolph Berwald (Sweden)
- Holbergiana Suite*, by Niels Gade (Denmark)
- En Saga*, by Jean Sibelius (Finland)

2 SOUTH

Saturday, December 19, 2008 at 8:00 pm
 The Basilica of St. Josaphat,
 2333 South 6th Street, Milwaukee

Featuring Dr. Hal Kacanek, didgeridoo, and the Master Singers of Milwaukee

Travel with us to hear spicy music from Latin America, Africa, and Australia as we celebrate Christmas south of the border AND south of the equator! In addition to a Christmas cantata by jazz icon Dave Brubeck, performed with the Master Singers of Milwaukee, this concert will feature the Wisconsin premier of Sean O'Boyle's Concerto for Didgeridoo.

- Danzas Latinoamericanas*, by Jose Elizondo (Latin America)
- Three Nigerian Dances*, by Samuel Ekpe Akpabot (Africa)
- Concerto for Didgeridoo, by Sean O'Boyle (Australia)
- La Fiesta de la Posada*, by Dave Brubeck (Mexico)

3 EAST

Saturday, March 13, 2010 at 8:00 pm
 Humphrey Scottish Rite Center
 790 N. Van Buren St., Milwaukee

Featuring the winner of the annual Dorothy J. Oestreich Concerto Competition!

Along with the magnificent artistry of our concerto competition winner, we'll continue to the lands of rising sun, shifting sands, and mysterious jungles, to showcase music of the near, middle, and far East.

- Greeting*, by Dan Lawitts (Japan)
- Israeli Suite*, by Rami Bar-Niv (Israel)
- Concerto to be determined by the winner of the Dorothy J. Oestreich Concerto Competition
- Opening Music*, by Reza Vali (Iran)
- Dances*, by Agnes Bashir-Dzodtsoeva (Jordan)
- Khoj; the Search for Light*, by Jan Gilbert (India)

4 WEST

Saturday, May 15, 2009 at 8:00 pm
 St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran Church,
 1615 Wauwatosa Avenue, Wauwatosa

Featuring violinist John Patek and cellist Jared Snyder

We will end our season with a tribute to the composer that is considered the pinnacle of Western civilization, Johannes Brahms, by performing both his "Double" Concerto and a new transcription for orchestra of his Opus 111 String Quintet in G by CCO member Keith MacGaffey. A nod to the American west will feature the music of Aaron Copland and budding California composer Randy Peterson.

- "Prairie Night and Celebration" from Billy the Kid, by Aaron Copland
- Concerto for Violin and Cello, op.102, by Johannes Brahms
- Suite from The Horse from Coulee Glen, by Randy Peterson
- Quintet, Opus 111, by Johannes Brahms, transcribed for orchestra by Keith MacGaffey
