Wauwatosa

Featuring Julian Rhee, violin soloist and winner of the 2015 Walter A. and Dorothy J. Oestreich Concerto Competition

1975-1985: Under the baton of conductor and founder John Parfrey, we took our first musical steps with tried-and-true pieces from the Baroque and early Classical eras, and cut our teeth with a few experimental forays into the 20th century.

Basilica of St. Josaphat
Milwaukee

Featuring the Milwaukee High School of the Arts Chorus, Raymond Roberts, Director

1985-1995: With conductors Peter Fitch, Pasquale Laurino, and Larry Harper, the orchestra began exploring. We ventured into music from the late Classical and Romantic eras, while maintaining a firm foothold in both classical and contemporary music.

Moments

January 31, 2016 • 1:30 p.m.

Nicolet High School

A newer addition to our season, the January "sampler" concert is a unique opportunity to hear a number of chamber music ensembles, each featuring musicians from the CCO.

These smaller ensembles will visit a variety of genres that, taken together, provide a complete musical experience – much in the same way that beautiful moments are the foundation for lasting memories.

Free for season ticket holders!

Join Us for Our 40th Season!

We're celebrating four decades of making classical music accessible to Milwaukee-area audiences, talented volunteer musicians, and young performers. We're honored to have been part of so many musical moments.

For our anniversary year, we surveyed our musicians and audience members, and we're revisiting some of your favorite pieces from each decade of our performances. We'll kick it off with cake in October and have special guests and other surprises throughout the season.

Also, in response to your requests, we're starting our evening performances at 7 p.m., an hour earlier. We hope the added convenience will encourage you to invite your friends and family members to join you – as you join us – for this very special anniversary season.
